

Endpoint and Server Protection Promotion

Get a three-year subscription for the price of one.

Valid until March 31, 2021

Cyber threats constantly grow more and more complex. Nearly 7 in 10 organizations of any size fall victim to attacks at some point.

Don't be an easy target for cyberattacks. Make sure the cybersecurity you use meets the following parameters:

- › Stop unknown malware by deep learning and AI technology
- › Block ransomware attacks – and never pay a penny to get their data back
- › Prevent unauthorized encryption attempts
- › Protect credentials from theft, plus detect malicious traffic
- › Stop hackers from leveraging vulnerabilities and compromising unpatched hosts
- › Automatically detect and prioritize potential threats using EDR technology
- › Manage all above with one Sophos Central system – for free

To take advantage of this special pricing, please reach out to your Sophos Partner and refer to this promotion.

Note: To reduce regular CAPEX to OPEX model, you can use Sophos solution as a service. Ask your Sophos MSP Partner or reach out directly to a Sophos representative at salesee@sophos.com.
